Dear Mr Bushell,

Please find attached the Direction from the Secretary of State for Transport to direct indefinite non approval for the application.

The letter sets out the reasons for this direction.

For clarity this means that while the Council may refuse or not determine the application, the Council cannot approve the application.

Should the applicant seek to appeal any decision the Council may make, The Secretary of State's Direction stands as the reason for that decision and therefore, unless there are other grounds the applicant may use outside of the reasons in the Direction, such an appeal has no prospect of succeeding.

Maureen
