Particular attention was given to some of the community work carried out by CFT in particular the hiring of a new creative therapist for young people, aiming to help in alleviating mental health struggles.

Members also offered their thanks to CFT for participating in the 'warm spaces' scheme, allowing members of the public to use the entrance foyer during the day in Winter.

Mr Evans raised a very serious issue relating to incidents of racism experienced by actors visiting CFT. Members expressed their horror and sorrow at hearing this. Mrs Bushby advised that CFT staff could emphasise the importance of reporting these incidents to the Police as hate crimes, acknowledging that it sadly reflected a rise in racially motivated hate crime.
