Comment Reasons:

Comment: 11:27 AM on 13 Jun 2019 As the final Chairman of the Real Ale and Jazz Festival, I would like to object to two facets of the event.

1 The sale of gin.

We always considered that the absence of spirit sales at the RAJF contributed to the good nature and exceptionally low behavioural issues, including no arrests in all our 28 years. We do not consider the sale of beer, wine and spirits is wise in this environment, especially given the presence of children.

2 Visitor numbers

The RAJF was capped at 2,500 visitors per evening event, all adult, which was challenging to manage when full. An extra 500 visitors, including children, would be significantly more challenging.
