

Tom Kerridge presents Pub in the Park

Tom Kerridge presents Pub in the Park' is a three-day food and music festival celebrating gastropub dining from across the UK. Under an invitation from Tom Kerridge, celebrity chefs will be producing Michelin starred dining, replicating dishes from each of their own pubs, whilst the audience enjoys live music and boutique shopping in a relaxed pub garden atmosphere.

Launched in 2017, Pub in the Park started as a one location stand only event at Higginson Park, Marlow. Headed up by Tom Kerridge, and with a stellar line up of chefs, pubs and music the festival sold out within 24 hours.

In 2018 we took this unique concept to four towns, Marlow, Bath, Tunbridge Wells and Knutsford drawing in over 67,000 people across the four shows. Following this success, Pub in the Park expanded its tour to eight towns, Marlow, Leeds, Knutsford, Bath, Warwick, Tunbridge Wells, Chiswick and St Albans; celebrating the best of British pub dining, combined with great live music, chef demonstrations, and other festival fun.
